

Eastville's Star-Spangled Day

Schedule of Events

9:00 - 1:00 Ancient Court records open at new Courthouse. Marriage license applications available for outdoor weddings at 3pm see below. Spectacular Eyre Hall doll house on display.

10:00 Native American flute instruction & performance by Alan Stanz

10:30 Opening Ceremonies on Old Court Green. Alan Stanz solo saxophone. Welcome with Jim Sturgis, Mayor of Eastville, and Katie Nunez, County Administrator, followed by special guest SFC Alvy R. Powell bass-baritone of the U.S. Army Chorus singing our national anthem as he has for our Presidents

11:00 [not noon] Speaker Dr. Paul Ewell 19th Century Chesapeake Bay Workboats

12:00 - 1:00 3 Sheets trio

12:30 Demonstration of Eastern Woodland Indian Primitive Weapons: Mike "Fierce Arrow" Hinman, Tribal Historian and Vice Council of the Accohannoeks

1:00 music continues with The Message Choir

1:30 Speaker Douglas Arvidson The Secrets of the Ancient Pacific Navigators and the War of 1812: The Star Connection

2:00 - 3:00 3 Sheets trio returns to the back porch of the Inn

3:00 Speaker Mike 'Fierce Arrow' Hinman History of the Local Accomac Tribe and Their Culture

3:00 Tack Into Eastville & Tie The Knot ! Weddings and marriage vow renewals at the gazebo in the Town Park

Music continues with the Heavenly Wings over Jordan gospel group

4:00 & 5:15 Unique mini concerts on glass instruments - Dean Shostak's Crystal Concert

All events center around the Eastville Inn and the Old Court Green except the weddings which will be at the Town Park and the Crystal Concerts which will be at historic Christ Episcopal Church (1828). Throughout the day you can enjoy the self guided walking tour with accompanying brochure A Walk through Eastville A Walk through History and visit the church and colonial buildings on the green with costumed docents from our Preservation Virginia (PVA) chapter. An activity bus and wagon and buggy rides will be available. Children will be entertained with the latter in addition to bubbles, getting their faces painted and their hair woven with feathers.

